Angheli 2006

Red - Merlot e Nero d'Avola Sicily IGT

A higher percentage of Merlot (now 60%) in the blend, complemented with 40% Nero d'Avola. The Angheli thus embarks on a path that will very probably lead to an increasing prevalence of Merlot. Meanwhile, let's enjoy this 2006 rich in silky tannins and extremely pleasant notes of licorice. It's the result of a fine year and 12-month maturation in second-passage barriques. Balanced and pleasurable – which says quite a lot.

Alcohol: 13.78 % vol. - Total acidity: 6.16 g/l. - pH: 3.45
