Sherazade 2009

Red - Nero d'Avola Sicilia IGP

With the 2009 vintage Sherazade becomes a mono-varietal Nero d'Avola, prince of indigenous Sicilian grapes. It comes from vineyards cultivated precisely to have grapes that ripen easily and well, without excess sugar content and with ideal fruity aroma formation.

We were thus able to harvest crunchy grapes, afterwards macerated at lower temperatures and for less than 10 days in order to get only well-polymerized tannins. The result is that of a Nero d'Avola extremely pleasant to drink, featuring varietal scents (with cherry outstanding), delicate notes of spices and silky tannins. Try it with pasta in tomato sauces, white meats and the fancier seafood dishes. Lightly chilled you will enjoy it even more.

Alcohol: 12.61 % vol. - Total acidity: 5.62 g/l. - pH: 3.45
