Anthilia

Producer: Donnafugata

Price: $13

Occasion: Buying a gift for your boss.

This wine is a blend of Cattarato and Asonica, and for many years these grapes were used (with a few other local grapes) to make the Sicilian fortified wine Marsala. The Donnafugata winery went in a different direction and made an elegant table wine. Anthilia has citrus and stone fruit flavors with focused, bright acidity and is nuanced with a complex mineral finish.
